Staff Ride Handbook authors. Although there is a considerable connection among all staff ride handbooks, the Staff Ride Handbook for Dade's Battle, Florida, 28 December 1835, has some significant differences from other handbooks. First, it is a struggle between a conventional-focused peacetime professional army and a budding irregular force.

Although a staff ride is the best way to learn about a battle, some organizations do not have the time or resources to conduct a true staff ride. For those organizations, a battlefield tour is more practical. The Staff Ride says, "A historical battlefield tour is a visit to the site of an actual campaign"
